

WBFS-TV QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST JANUARY 1, 2010 THROUGH MARCH 31, 2010

Attached are listings of broadcasts or broadcast segments that, in the Station's judgment, reflect the Station's most significant programming treatment of ascertained issues during the preceding three-month period. The Station also produced and broadcast a "Community Calendar" and public service announcements promoting local community events and campaigns.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA- A half-hour bi-weekly public affairs broadcast featuring panel discussions and interviews with community leaders, focusing on important issues of local concern. Broadcast dates and times as indicated in the report.

CBS4 NEWS REPORTS ON MY33- Special and series reports focusing on important local issues. These reports air during selected CBS4 News broadcasts on WBFS-TV. Duration: Each part is approximately under three minutes. Broadcast times and dates indicated in the report.

EDUCATION/FAMILY: Topics in this category include: help for grieving children; autism programs; bullying; and campaign to increase public school funding.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: 2/21, 10:30 AM. Abby Mosher, founder of Tomorrow's Rainbow discussed how her organization helps children cope with the loss of a loved one by working with animals. 3/7, 10:30 AM. Dr. Jennifer Durocher, UM/NSU Center for Autism & Related Disabilities; Albert Lopez, Autism Speaks Miami; and Yolanda Gonzalez, parent of a child with autism discussed the increasing number of autism cases in South Florida, the recent success of Autism Speaks Walk that brought together 18,000 walkers and raised more than $300,000 for the charity as well as programs available at UM/NSU CARD for families affected by autism. 3/21, 10:30 AM. Reenie Brewer, Anti-Bullying Advocate and grandmother of victim of bully attack discussed her campaign to stop school violence and the case of her grandson-- Michael Brewer -- a 15-year old boy who was set on fire by three schoolmates over a video game and is undergoing a very slow recovery following several surgeries and months in rehabilitation therapy. In another segment, Colton Chase, Reid Frank and Jody Del Giorno, local college students, discussed their recent trip to Haiti to help rebuild an orphanage in Port Au Prince that was destroyed by the recent earthquake. They explained that the need for volunteers and supplies is great and urged viewers to donate to help them continue their important mission. 4/4, 10:30 AM. Mindy Gould, President, Miami-Dade County Council PTA/PTSA; Bibiana Salmon, parent and Eduardo Punyed, Student at Ronald Regan High School in Doral discussed their "Rally to Tally" trip to the Tallahassee with thousands of other South Florida parents, teachers and students who went there to speak with Florida legislators and campaign for higher funding for public education. In another segment, Martha Sierra Martinez, author of "Eva's Two Houses" discussed her book written to help families and children cope with divorce and make the best out of their "blended-family" living arrangements.

ECONOMY/GOVERNMENT: Topics in this category include: law against feeding the homeless in Miami; problems with rebuilding project; and misuse of environmental crimes funding.

CBS4 NEWS REPORTS ON MY33: FEEDING THE HUNGRY BECOMES ILLEGAL: 2/26, 10 PM. This report focused on a proposed City of Miami ordinance that will make it illegal for people to feed the hungry on the streets. City officials are trying to avoid the gathering of homeless in empty lots where Good Samaritans pull up and distribute food.

This ordinance will require that the Good Samaritans register their feeding programs.

CBS4 NEWS REPORTS ON MY33: I-TEAM-FAMILIES WAIT YEARS FOR PROMISED HOMES: 3/4, 10 PM. This investigative report revealed that a group of homes that were destroyed by a tornado seven years ago in Liberty City have not been rebuilt as promised by Miami-Dade County officials. The report exposed that a local organization in charge of the rebuilding project has not been able to get the work done because they have not received the promised funding although $400,000 in funds have been spent on costs other than the rebuilding.

CBS4 NEWS REPORTS ON MY33: I-TEAM- POLICE BUY LUXURY COMMAND COMMUNE: 3/5, 10 PM. This investigative reported looked into a custom-made portable commode that the Miami-Dade Police Department has ordered for a cost of $65,000 using funds that are intended to be spent on enforcing environmental crimes.

CULTURE/ARTS: Topics in this category include: literary event at the public library; Black History month events; fashion show fundraiser; and music event at local inner-city.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: 3/7, 10:30 AM. Dorothy Klein and Diane Brewer of the Broward County Library Foundation discussed the "Literary Feast" an event that brings world renowned authors to South Florida for lectures and book signings. 2/21, 10:30 AM. Lutricia Welters of the Jubilee Dance Theatre discussed various South Florida programs in celebration of black history and culture during Black History month. The activities involved concerts, theatrical productions, and historical tour of sites such as the Lemon City Cemetery which was recently designated a historic site and is currently undergoing preservation. In another segment, local fashion designer Victoria Lopez Castro and Cynthia Gutierrez-White, Communications Director for the South Florida Chapter of the American Red Cross, discussed an upcoming fashion show of Ms. Castro's latest collection that will benefit the Red Cross. 3/21, 10:30 AM. Jovie, a local singer/songwriter, discussed this year's Jazz in the Gardens festival, an annual two-day event in Miami Gardens that has been bringing famous recording artists to this low-income community for the past five years. She explained that the festival has provided many opportunities for up-and-coming local artists and with the assistance of the music industry and local businesses has developed into a world-class music event.

HEALTH/ENVIRONMENT: Topics in this category include: low-cost fitness programs; fitness event for corporate teams; program treats injured wildlife; and eco-friendly wall paint.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: 1/10, 10:30 AM. Abigail Harlan, YMCA of Greater Miami, discussed the many free and low-cost fitness programs available through the YMCA. She mentioned that their facilities are conveniently located throughout the county; they have modern exercise equipment in their gyms, nutrition experts, exercise and yoga classes and swimming and water safety programs. She explained that according to experts the types of programs that they offer are important for living a healthy and longer life. 3/21, 10:30 AM. Hans Huseby, Team Footworks Miami discussed the Corporate Run, an annual fitness event that brings together teams from local businesses and organizations. He explained that the event is celebrating its 25th anniversary and has since expanded into the tri-county area with more than 25,000 registered participants every year. The event benefits the local chapter of the American Red Cross. 4/4, 10:30 AM. Lt. Sherry Schlueter, Executive Director, Wildlife Care Center discussed how their program saves injured wildlife by providing medical services that range from emergency surgeries to physical rehabilitation. He explained that the number of animals needing their care has increased because many people are releasing undomesticated animals into the wild when they can no longer care for them and these animals end up injured. CBS4 NEWS REPORTS ON MY33: ECO-ZONE: 3/2, 10 PM. This report focused on a local company, Eco-Simplista that sells non-toxic wall paint and other eco-safe home products. According to the business owner, the standard wall paints releases toxic chemicals for up to six years and can cause serious illnesses for people who are sensitive to these chemicals.